COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE

COUNTER-TERRORISM AND SECURITY BILL

Mr David Davis
Mr Dominic Raab
Mr Peter Bone
Mr Philip Hollobone
Steve Baker

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Intercept Evidence - use in legal proceedings

- (1) Section 18 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (c.23) is amended as follows.
- (2) After paragraph 1(f) insert—
 - “(g) any proceedings relating to an offence which, if committed in England and Wales at the time of the conviction, would have constituted an offence triable only on indictment (“an indictable-only offence”) under section 51 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause removes the exclusion of intercept evidence from legal proceedings in criminal prosecutions.
