

Letter from Alison Seabeck MP to the Chair, Standards and Privileges Committee, 7 March 2011

I am writing following the publication of the Twelfth Report by the Committee on Standards and Privileges to offer a full apology for not declaring an indirect interest during a debate on fire safety in houses in multiple occupation. I had sought advice which I clearly misinterpreted.